

Streets Department working on Repairing North Walnut Street
10/09/17

The streets department is working on repairing the north portion of Walnut Street. The pictures below you see them applying the lime stabilization to help with the subgrade (the underside of the road).

